

Cultivate the Power of YOUR Team

Your Secret Weapon!

Young dentists are typically prepared clinically, but don't know how to best utilize their staff for maximum performance. Even experienced dentists frequently overlook the untapped potential of the very team that surrounds them daily.

Dentists regularly miss huge opportunities to cultivate the power of their team to increase patient care and profitability. Janet's experience with group and solo practices across America helps them accelerate their team performance. Her course helps dentists, young and seasoned, tap into the potential of their teams. Be the leader your team needs to help your team help you.
