Sell That Smile!

The art of Increasing Patient Treatment Acceptance for Dentists and their Teams

Dental case acceptance across America averages only 30-50%!

Is This You?

What is YOUR treatment acceptance?

If you're like most dentists and dental teams you hate sounding salesy, but you do want to sell your dentistry. Patients come to you for your professional advice, listen nicely to your patient education, and leave without scheduling treatment – the back-door syndrome.

Is This You?

- Are you tired of needed dentistry walking out your door?
- Do you want to sell more dentistry without sounding pushy?
- Does it drive you nuts when your patients don't follow your expert advice?
- Would you like to maximize the potential of your team to peak performance?

If you answered YES, then this course is for you.
